

How to use Urkund in Canvas Student View

Student View of Submissions

Go into the desired Assignment and open it. Select 'Submit Assignment'.

Here you can submit your file for the assignment. You MUST select the 'Optional' box that says you agree to the submission pledge before you can submit the assignment.

Select 'Submit assignment'.

Go to the relevant course and assignment.

The screenshot shows the Canvas interface for an assignment titled 'support demo'. On the left, a navigation menu includes 'Home', 'Assignments', 'Discussions', 'Grades' (highlighted with a yellow box and a mouse cursor), 'People', 'Syllabus', 'Conferences', and 'Collaborations'. The main content area shows the assignment details: 'Due: No due date', 'Points: 0', and 'Submitting: a file upload'. A 'Re-submit Assignment' button is visible. On the right, the 'Submission' section indicates the assignment is 'Submitted!' on '13 Dec at 9:33', with links for 'Submission details' and 'Download CLTM-onepager.docx'. A 'Comments' section shows 'No comments'.

Go to Grades.

The Similarity Score from Urkund will not be visible on this page. However, a colored tab will appear in the far right of the assignment row. The colored tabs indicate a percentage score – see table for color percentages.

The screenshot shows the 'Grades for Test Student' page. It includes a 'Print Grades' button and an 'Arrange by' dropdown menu set to 'Due date'. The main table lists assignments with columns for Name, Due, Status, Score, and Out of. The 'Urkund Demo' row has a blue tab in the far right column, which is highlighted with a yellow box. Other rows include 'Extended Due Date' (status: MISSING), 'support demo' (score: 0), and a 'Total' row (score: N/A).

| Color | Percentage |
|--------|-------------------------|
| Blue | <10% |
| Green | 10% to <25% |
| Yellow | 25% to <50% |
| Orange | 50% to <75% |
| Red | >75% |

Originality report

When you hover your mouse over the colored tab, you can see that it is linked to the report. Select the link and a new tab will open to your Urkund by Ouriginal Report.

Sometimes the colored tab does not appear immediately. When that happens, you will see a 'clock' icon showing that the file has been submitted and is 'pending' the results.

The 'Submission details' page will open. You will see the file you submitted and the colored tab with a percentage score inside of it.

Select the colored tab to take you to the Urkund by Ouriginal report in another window.

Note that the percentage is the amount of the text that has been found somewhere else and is NOT an indication of plagiarism.

Further information

The Urkund website is a great hub for any other questions you may have. We have a page dedicated to FAQ's, ideas on avoiding self-plagiarism alongside what might constitute plagiarism too, and of course some tips on how to reference/quote.

Please be aware, as a general rule – Urkund will look to have all communication regarding its solution through teachers/school staff – so if there is ever any questions or issues, it's best that your first contact is with your school.
